The heart of the town constitutes an urban conservation area and fortress with a Gothic castle into the graceful Renaissance town. Of Hradec played an important role in transforming of original wa-tele. Of the 13th century at an intersection of two country’s routes. The city is a destination for visitors from all over the world.

SIGHTSEEINGS

The State Castle Telč
In the 2nd half of the 17th century, Zachariáš of Hradec had the original gothic castle rebuilt into a Renaissance residence. The interior decoration and furnishing are of a great value. The castle complex houses the Chateau Underground Pasages, chateau gardens and park.

The Chateau and Tower of St. Jacob
The parish church, the tower of which reaches the height of almost 60 metres (200 ft), was established at the same time as the town. It reached its current appearance in the mid 15th century. Plaques commemorating the victims of the First and Second World Wars are placed in the Way of the Cross.

The Church of the Name of Jesus
Originally a Jesuit church, established by Countess Frančtka Slavatová, it was completed in the year 1667, in the baroque style. The church has an unusual orientation - facing the square with its side facade.

The Church and Tower of the Holy Spirit Originally in the Romanesque style, the church was rebuilt in the gothic style in the late 15th century. Its late Romanesque tower from the 1st half of the 13th century is the oldest-preserved building in the town, and it reaches the height of 49 metres (163 ft). The new entertaining and educational interactive exhibition from 2018.

Jesuit College
It was constructed in the years 1651-1655. After 1883 it housed a school and the municipal museum, and at present, it serves as the seat of the University Centre of Telč of the Masaryk University Brno and the Highlands Museum, branch Telč.

Jesuit Grammar School
In 1673, Jesuits established a Latin grammar school here. Nowadays it serves for the purposes of the Czech Technical University Prague.

House of the Holy Angels Originally an old mill-house, turned into a school of church mu-ic after the arrival of the Jesuits, nowadays serving as the Telč Edu-tional Centre.

The Town Hall
This is one of the few non-ecclesiastical buildings in Europe with a giant-orde facade. Situated next to the entrance door, the iron measure of one fathom displays the length of an ell and a sign of the altitude of the town above sea level 522.5 metres (1741.6 ft). The front wall in the archway bears a plaque commemorating the inclusion of the town in the UNESCO World Heritage List in the year 1992.
